

Landulph Parish Neighbourhood Development Plan

Public Consultation 4 - Survey To Ascertain Views of Young People in the Parish in October 2016

Report: December 2016

Landulph Neighbourhood plan wanted to find out the views of young residents (aged between 11-19 yrs) who lived in Landulph Parish

A questionnaire was devised (this can be seen on www.landulphplan.org.uk)

It was delivered to households known to have young residents during October 2016.

Forms were also available on website.

Info also placed on Landulph Plan Facebook page and in the parish newsletter.

17 forms returned out of 40

Summary

The respondents were generally positive about the future of Landulph School.

They were not so positive about the likelihood of their finding work in Landulph.

They wanted housing for local people or anyone who wanted to live here but they were not keen on holiday homes.

The opinions of where houses will be built and how many was varied.

In the comments section they wanted public transport and facilities that would enable them to do things together.
